No.375-OR/1/40.- In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (2) of rule 22 of the Defence of India Rules, the Central Government is pleased to direct that the following amendment shall be made in the Control of Non-postal Communications Order, 1940, namely: -

In paragraph 2 of the said Order, after sub-paragraph (v), the following shall be inserted, namely: -

"(vA) any gramophone record;"

Secretary to the Government of India.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

The Control of Non-postal Communications Order, 1940, places restrictions on the bringing into or taking out of British India, otherwise than by post, of various kinds of articles capable of conveying information. This is necessary for the efficient working of the postal censorship. Among the articles over which it is necessary to exercise this kind of control are gramophone records. Some doubt has arisen whether the Order is framed so as to cover such articles in every case, and to remove this doubt the Order has been amended so as to make specific reference to them. Travellers should note therefore that gramophone records are liable to dealt with under the Order.
